

Restoration of Rights Event

FREE one-on-one help for Ex-offenders, adult and youth, with a federal or Arizona conviction who want to have their civil rights restored and have their cases set aside.

Dress for Success and Maricopa County are proud to announce their new partnership in presenting these events to the community.

DRESS FOR SUCCESS®
PHOENIX

Going Places. Going Strong.

Did you know, if you have:

- Paid all your financial obligations
 - fines, court costs and restitution;
- Completed your consequences
 - probation, community supervision;
- Completed other requirements
 - treatment and community service

You may be able to remove barriers to:
EMPLOYMENT, VOTING, HOUSING

Both the men and women participating in the Restoration of Rights event will be fitted (on the spot) for one free outfit. Dress for Success will help the women and St. Joseph the Worker will help the men.

PLEASE BRING:

- Case Number (s)
- Conviction/Sentencing Date
- Charges admitted to/found guilty of
- Date of Discharge from Probation
- Absolute Discharge from ADOC
- Information about financial obligations (restitution/fees/fines)

If you do not have the information listed above, you can get it at <http://www.courtminutes.maricopa.gov/JONamesearch.asp> if your case occurred in 2000 or later. If your case occurred before 2000, you can get your information at: 601 W. Jackson, Phoenix.

*Please note: your felony record (s) cannot be expunged, sealed or deleted. Arizona convictions only.
